Donation Requests

Wild Oats frequently contributes to non-profit organizations serving our community, with a focus on those specializing in areas connected to our co-op's mission and Ends Policy.

Our values include:

- Local food production
- A robust local economy
- Environmental sustainability
- Social responsibility
- Other cooperative ventures
- Consumer empowerment, food choice & education
- Diversity in our membership, our community & our society

Our donations support the following:

- The health and welfare of citizens of Berkshire County, Eastern Rensselaer County & Southern Vermont
- A thriving local economy, particularly the sustainability of local food production here in the Berkshires & surrounding areas
- The Seven Cooperative Principles
- Access to fresh & healthy food
- Members of our community in need
- The stewardship of local natural resources

Our donations take the form of the following three options:

- $25 Wild Oats gift cards for charity auctions, events, etc.
- In-kind donations of products/food to local organizations
- Funds raised through our Every Penny Counts (Formerly Round Up For Change) program

Please note: we do not respond to direct requests for monetary donations and all resources we make available to our community are prioritized according to the values detailed on the previous page.
